Homework 1

1. Install a text editor of your choice and learn hot keys for all of the following commands:

- save, save all open files
- open file
- undo/redo
- go to particular line of code
- highlight a word/the next word/the line
- highlight all instances of a word
- copy/cut/paste words/lines
- duplicate lines

2. Write a paragraph or two description of your workflow for the class project. Your description should include:

- a summary of what data will be used;
- what analyses will be performed on the data;
- what the output of the analysis will contain;
- software that you need to complete your workflow.

3. Install the following software on your computer (all clickable links):

- R version 4.0.2
- If you are a Windows user, install Ubuntu for Windows
- Install homebrew
- Mac users, upgrade bash to the latest version and set it as default shell following instructions here